

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
Director of Choral Studies

- POSITION: Director of Choral Studies Program in the Department of Vocal Performance
- QUALIFICATIONS: Doctorate preferred or equivalent professional experience. Candidates are sought who have demonstrated success as an administrator, teacher and choral conductor.
- RESPONSIBILITIES: The Director of Choral Studies will provide administrative leadership for the Choral Studies Program, including conducting the Frost Chorale and other ensembles as needed; providing instruction in conducting and related courses; and supervising research and performances of graduate students in choral conducting. In addition, the Director will work with faculty members of the Department of Vocal Performance and the Frost School of Music for developing curricula and in recruiting undergraduate students and graduate choral conductors.
- APPOINTMENT: Full-time, tenure track appointment effective August 15, 2008. Rank and salary commensurate with qualifications.
- ENVIRONMENT: The University of Miami is a private, independent, comprehensive university with an enrollment of approximately 15,000 students from all fifty states and over 100 countries. The main campus is located in Coral Gables, a residential suburb of Miami. The Frost School of Music has an enrollment of approximately 750 majors in 31 programs leading toward B.A., B.M., B.S., M.M., M.S., D.M.A., and Ph.D. degrees. Approximately 60 full-time and 34 part-time faculty, plus 78 graduate teaching assistants serve these students.
- APPLICATIONS: Nominations and applications are encouraged by December 1, 2007; however, applications will continue to be accepted until the position has been filled. Letters of application should be accompanied by a curriculum vitae; the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of five references; and a DVD recording of rehearsals and performances.
